

Ella Clays' Bio

Ella Bernadette Johnson-Clay was born to praise God. A native Nashvillian, reared in a loving home by Eugenia and Frank Johnson.

She is a graduate of Faith is the Victory Bible Institute, Emmanuel Bible College and currently enrolled at American Baptist College.

Professionally, Mrs. Clay is an entrepreneur and has successfully owned Elegant Hair Expressions since 1990. Additionally she is a licensed instructor for the Tennessee State Board of Cosmetology. She facilitates workshops and seminars for women's group and local schools. Mrs. Clay has been a columnist for the Tennessee Tribune Newspaper.

She serves on the Meharry Medical College Centering Advisory Committee for the Department of Obstetrics and Gynecology. In addition she is the spiritual advisor for the International Council of Community Churches Women's Christian Fellowship. Clay is a contributing writer for the Christian Community Newspaper of the ICCC.

Lady Clay is married to Pastor Glenn V. Clay of the Historic First Community Church. They have been married for twenty-nine years. They have one daughter, Shawna and one grandson, Johnathan. The couple conducts counseling, marriage seminars and workshops.

Lady Clay loves the Lord and loves God's great people.